RE: YOUR MARCH 23, 2002, E-MAIL TO john@brazilboycott.org

Dear Mr. Nichols:

I have just received copy of your above dated e-mail as to the subject FIRAL NOTICE in the removal of the following documents from my web site:

- a. Your February 24, 1995 letter to Attorney Jeffrey L. Orron;
- b. My December 20, 2001, letter to you.

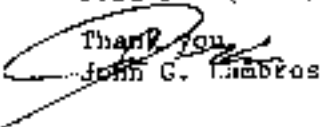

You state that, "As well, the reference to radiographic materials concerns DIFFERENT X-rays than the one you have on your web site and therefore is a MISREPRESENTATION of the events and facts. Do not bother to contact me about the above. Remove my name and letter immediately."

I do not understand how DIFFERENT X-RAYS could be involved, as the only X-rays are the X-rays that were provided by the U.S. Bureau of Prisons. Therefore, I am suggesting that you contact the U.S. Bureau of Prisons to verify same and sue them as to MISREPRESENTATION of the events and facts.

In fact, may I also suggest that you contact the U.S. Attorneys Office in the Central District of California, the clerk office should be able to assist you:

CLERK
6-8 United States Courthouse
312 North Spring Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012
Tel. (213) 894-3535

and ask them to prosecute me under Title 18, USCA §1001 for my willful filing of false statements as to the X-rays of the U.S. Bureau of Prisons. See, U.S. vs. HANSEN, 772 F.2d 940 (1985).

Thank you

John G. Lambros
